

Alexa Barrett with
Senator Mike Crapo
in Washington DC

POSTER CONTEST

Idaho Student Wins
National Poster Contest!

Idaho poster contest winner, Alexa Barrett from American Falls, won a trip to Washington DC where she took first place in the National Poster Contest. She was awarded a trip to Disney World for her and her family. Congratulations, Alexa!

We encourage your participation in the Poster Contest!
WHY?.....

- *It gives your students the opportunity to creatively express what they learned during the classroom presentation.
- *It allows students to focus on the POSITIVE effects of not using tobacco.
- *Your school poster winner (ONE per school) will be entered into the Idaho State Poster Contest and will be recognized with a certificate and a Tar Wars t-shirt from the Idaho Academy of Family Physicians.
- *The top three Idaho winners win prizes for themselves and their classrooms.
- *The winner of the state poster contest and one parent will receive a trip to Washinton DC to represent Idaho at the National Poster Contest and a chance to win a trip to Disney World.
- *Several of the posters entered into the State Contest will be featured in the Idaho Tar Wars Calendar.

POSTER CONTEST DEADLINE IS MARCH 31, 2010

See the Teacher Guide for complete details and required forms.